

PROTECTION OF THE ARCHAEOLOGICAL AND PALEONTOLOGICAL HERITAGE

Order 18/2003

An order establishing the National Registry of Paleontological Sites, Collections and Remains within the scope of the Bernardino Rivadavia Argentine Museum of Natural Sciences and the National Research Institute of Natural Sciences, the enforcement authority of the system established by Act No. 25743.

Buenos Aires, 15 October 2003

HAVING REGARD TO Act No. 25743 on the Protection of the Archaeological and Paleontological Heritage and Resolution No. 184, dated 25 August 2003, by the Secretariat for Science, Technology and Productive Innovation (SCTIP), and

WHEREAS

In compliance with the powers conferred by Section 55 of the abovementioned regulation, the Secretary for Science, Technology and Productive Innovation, through SCTIP Resolution No. 184/2003, has entrusted this Museum and Institute with the responsibility of taking the necessary steps to implement and operate the system established by Act No. 25743, making it its enforcement authority;

Among other duties, the national agency in charge of protecting the paleontological heritage should establish and organize the National Registry of Paleontological Sites, Collections and Remains;

To that end, it is necessary to provide the citizenry with the adequate regulatory framework to enforce the duties imposed on them by virtue of the system; Against this background and in order to facilitate the registration of paleontological sites, collections and remains, the model “Single Registration Form for Paleontological Sites” and “Single Registration Form for Paleontological Collections and/or Remains” were developed for compulsory use, to make the registration procedure quicker and more accurate;

This order is passed in exercise of the powers conferred by SCTIP Resolution No. 184, dated 25 August 2003;

Now, therefore,

THE HEAD OF THE BERNARDINO RIVADAVIA ARGENTINE MUSEUM OF NATURAL SCIENCES and NATIONAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF NATURAL SCIENCES

PROVIDES:

Section 1 — The National Registry of Paleontological Sites, Collections and Remains is hereby created within the scope of this Museum and Institute, to begin operating as from the publication of this order in the Official Gazette.

Section 2 — The model “Single Registration Form for Paleontological Sites” and “Single Registration Form for Paleontological Collections and/or Remains” annexed hereto, which are an integral part of this order, are hereby approved. Their use for the abovementioned procedure shall be compulsory and they may be published on the www.macn.gov.ar web site.

Section 3 — Be it recorded, notified, published, submitted to the National Board of Official Registration and filed. — Edgardo J. Romero.
